QUESTIONS

- How are you going to read this paper? Why?
Where does the paper come from? What are the implications (if any)?

What is/are the main idea(s)?

What is the structure/outline of the paper? (you may draw a diagram or a mind map)
- What is a model?
- Why do people use it?
- What is its importance/role in public policy?
- What are the main types of models?
- What are some advantages and limitations of models
What are the takeaway points?